

Yeshiva Parents invites you to join us for our 11th Annual

Family Shabbaton Weekend

Thursday, November 5 thru Sunday, November 8, 2009
 Cheshvan 18 thru 21, 5770

Thursday evening,
 November 5

Parent –Teacher Conferences

Friday evening, 8:15 P.M.

Oneg Shabbat

*In Chicago at the home of:
 Leah & Alan Cohen
 2940 W. Lunt*

*In Lincolnwood at the home of:
 TBA*

In Skokie at the home of: TBA

Sunday morning,
 November 8

Campus Visit

7:30 A.M.

Tefillah, followed by breakfast

9:30-10:45 A.M.

Parents are invited to visit their son's shiur

11:00 A.M.

Closing Meeting

Meet with the Administration

Friday morning, 9:45 A.M.
 November 6

Visit the new Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center

We will depart the Yeshiva by van to explore this new world-class museum. It is dedicated to preserving the memories of those lost in the Holocaust and teaching current generations about the need to fight hatred, indifference and genocide in today's world.

Educational for all ages

Last, but certainly not least, we will dine on tasty bagels and spreads from Bagel Country.

We plan to return to the Yeshiva no later than 2 P.M.

(See price info on RSVP form)

Motza'ei Shabbat
 8:00 – 11:00 P.M.
 November 7

Melava Malka

Fun and food for your entire family!! Ice Skating, pizza, and socializing with old friends and new at:

Robert Crown Ice Center
 1701 Main Street
 Evanston, IL

(See price info on RSVP form)

For additional information, contact:

Leslie & Shaya Goldmeier
 (773) 262-0635

Chana & Shmuel Goldstein
 (773) 743-6133

